

Aggregate counts of persons exposed to highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI)

State: _____

Report Date: _____ (mm/dd/yyyy)

Report for MMWR week: _____ (MMWR weeks run from Sunday to following Saturday)

	Commercial Poultry Farm	Commercial Cattle Farm	Backyard or Hobby Farm	Other, specify: _____ _____	Total
Total number of individuals exposed and intended to be actively monitored (associated with HPAI outbreaks)
Total number of individuals whose monitoring period is complete
Total number of individuals lost to follow-up before the monitoring period was complete
Total number of individuals currently actively monitoring*
Total ill¥¥ in past week
Total tested in past week

*Actively monitored can either be daily active monitoring, a modified form of active monitoring (including day 0, 5, and 10) as long as contact with the individual has been made via in person, phone, text, or email. If working through an intermediary, please also include individuals who were exposed and who were provided information on who to contact if they became ill.

¥¥compatible with HPAI including any of the following symptoms: fever or feeling feverish/chills; cough; sore throat; runny or stuffy nose; eye tearing, redness, irritation (“pink eye”); sneezing; difficulty breathing; shortness of breath; fatigue (feeling very tired); muscle or body aches; headaches; nausea; vomiting; diarrhea; seizures; or rash

Please send this data to the Influenza Division at CDC (email: fluvIEWSupport@cdc.gov)